

Coming to NSA Central Florida:

August 2014

Sam Silverstein is an entrepreneur, business expert and international author. Sam knows how to get million dollar results. His companies have sold upwards of $100 million in products and services, and he successfully sold one of his businesses to a Fortune 500 company. NO MORE EXCUSES® Why do some succeed while others fail? It starts with eliminating excuses, eradicating justifications and taking personal accountability for choices, actions and results. It starts with accountability.

September 2014

Neem James is a leadership expert. She's an Australian obsessed with helping people get more done so they can create more significant moments in life that matter. She will show our attendees how to use the thought leader process to develop commercial success.

October 2014

Liz Weber is known as The Dragon Lady of Leadership Accountability, Liz is a sought after management consultant and trusted advisor. She will focus on how to leverage your brand and grow your speaking business.

November 2014

Laurie Guest, CSP will show you how to create your own speaking success quickly and painlessly. Join this fast-paced, entertaining program and discover hot ideas to thrive in this business. Find out how Laurie was able to quit her full-time job less than two years after her first paid speaking engagement while still maintaining a positive bottom line business each year.

January 2015

Cathy Fyock helps people who dream of writing their book get from the first word to the first draft in six weeks. Come to this session with an idea for your next book and by April you will have a draft. Cathy is Your Possibility Partner. What she has accomplished as a corporate leader and as CEO of Innovative Management Concepts will make a difference in your career.

NATIONAL SPEAKERS ASSOCIATION

