

Don't Miss Our 2016-17 Speakers

October 15, 2016

Carol Copeland Thomas MBA, CDMP, CITM as a speaker, trainer, global thought leader, and business owner since 1987, Carole moderates the discussions of key issues affecting our global marketplace. She has her pulse on the issues affecting working professionals and consults with industry leaders on a regular basis. From speaking at the Federal Highway Administration, SHRM, State Street Corporation, Verizon, Cargill, and Monster Worldwide to interviewing experts around the globe, Carole knows how to analyze the dynamics of a changing marketplace.

Carole served as an adjunct faculty member for Bentley University for a decade. She co-founded a non-profit international organization with nine other women as a result of a 2005 trip to Kenya. The group returned to Kenya in November 2007 for humanitarian projects and to host their first International Conference in Mombasa, Kenya. Her current humanitarian activities are focused on Southern India, aiding women and children in the region.

She is an active blogger, social media enthusiast, and Radio Talk Show Host & Executive Coach. Carole is a 21-year member of NSA and the past president of NSA - New England.

From Amtrak to Wal-Mart, Carole knows how to identify sponsors who are looking for partnerships and opportunities to enhance their branding potential. Don't miss October's Meeting, as Carole presents Speak Your Way To Success Through Sponsorship: One Partner At A Time. She will teach a step-by-step process to find sponsors who will partner with your speaking business year after year. And share with you the techniques to secure relationships with decision makers who understand why partnering with you simply makes sense.
